BENEFITS LIST

The tables below display benefits for all Board Members and for staff whose annualized salary is greater than $100,000. To enter or modify this information, and to answer the question at the bottom of the page, select "Modify."

The intent of this screen is to capture information on:

- Any benefit available to board members.
- Extraordinary benefits available to staff earning over $100,000 in annualized salary by virtue of their position.

An extraordinary benefit should only be reported if it is provided for the exclusive use of a staff member. For example, you should report:

- A car assigned to a staff member for personal use,
- A financial package provided at retirement or the end of a contract that exceeds the normal conversion of unused vacation time, or
- Some other benefit that is not also available to rank and file staff.

Do not report benefits that are equally available to all staff. For example, you should not report:

- Staff use of a credit card for business travel,
- Access to a fleet vehicle owned by the authority and available to all staff for business use only, or
- The right of all staff to convert unused vacation time as a condition of employment.
